

Caserta

Caserta | Marrow / Squash

Caserta squash is an Italian cocozelle, or crookneck type of zucchini. When it is small, it is straight, but as the fruit matures, it achieves the trademark curved look of a crookneck squash. This gorgeous squash is medium green with wide, darker green stripes and slight ridges.

Specifications:

Cultivation:	Open field
Type:	Loose Bags Pre-pack
Days to maturity:	55 – 65 days
Fruit shape:	Crookneck Cylindrical small at 13 – 15 cm length.
Plantstand:	12 – 15 000 p/ha